Zack Bruell Restaurant Group Announces 2018 Restaurant Week in January

Chef Bruell designs special prix fixe menus and wine pairings in six restaurants

Cleveland – The Zack Bruell Restaurant Group, a national leader in contemporary cuisine, has announced dates for its annual Restaurant Week, featuring prix fixe menus and wine pairings in six of the group’s Cleveland restaurants.

Between Jan. 22 through Feb. 3, 2018, special three-course meal options will be offered in the following restaurants: Parallax in the Tremont neighborhood; Table 45 in the InterContinental Hotel Cleveland; L’Albatros Brasserie & Bar in University Circle; Ristorante Chinato on East Fourth Street; Cowell & Hubbard in PlayhouseSquare; and Alley Cat on the East Bank of the Flats.

The restaurants will provide special menus and optional wine pairings based on the style of each location. Multiple options for each course will be provided, and complete meals will be priced at $33, excluding tax, beverages and gratuity. Wine pairings will be an additional $20. Reservations are recommended.

“Zack Bruell Restaurant Week become an annual event that our customer look forward to each January,” said Denise Kramer, marketing director for the restaurant group. “Zack has spent quite a bit of time developing exciting new dishes that our diners have never seen.”
